

SOUTHERN UNION CONFERENCE
SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST® CHURCH

Randy Robinson

Randy was born and raised in the San Francisco Bay area. After attending Seventh-day Adventist grade schools he attended Monterey Bay Academy where he graduated from high school. After 4 years of attending Pacific Union College, he graduated with a Bachelor of Business Administration.

He was immediately hired by the Nevada-Utah Conference as a business intern. He continued there serving as accountant, and assistant treasurer. After nearly 10 years, he served in the Illinois Conference for four years as Treasurer, the Oregon Conference for 11 years as Treasurer, and now in the Southern Union as Treasurer.

Randy was married in 1983 to his wife Denise. They have two boys, Jason and Brandon.