

Brian Stanley Bull

Curriculum Vitae

BULL, BRIAN STANLEY, pathologist, educator. Born in Watford, Hertfordshire, England, September 14, 1937. Son of Stanley and Agnes Mary (Murdoch) Bull. Married to Maureen Hannah Huse, June 3 1963. Children: Beverly Velda, Beryl Heather. Arrived in U.S., 1954; naturalized 1960.

B.S. in Zoology, Walla Walla College (now University) 1957. MD Loma Linda University, Loma Linda California 1961. Intern Yale University 1961-62; resident in anatomic pathology New Haven Medical Center 1962-63; resident in clinical pathology NIH, Bethesda, MD 1963-65, fellow in hematology and electron microscopy, 1965-66, staff hematologist, 1966-67. Diplomate of the American Board of Pathology 1968.

Research assistant, department of anatomy Loma Linda U. 1958; department of microbiology 1959. Assistant professor of pathology 1968-71, associate professor 1971-73, professor 1973—present. Chairman, department of pathology, 1973-1993. Chairman, department of pathology and human anatomy, 1993-2014. Associate dean for academic affairs Loma Linda U. School of Medicine 1993-94; Dean Loma Linda U. School of Medicine 1994-2003

Consultant to manufacturers of medical testing devices. Board member International Committee for Standardization in Hematology (ICSH). President ICSH 1997-99.

Inaugural lecturer, Houwen Memorial Lectures, International Society of Laboratory Hematology 2005. Member Board of Editors Blood Cells, Molecules and Diseases, 1995-2014; contributor of chapters to books (25+), articles to medical journals (230+); patentee in field (13+); Editor-in-chief Blood Cells NY Heidelberg, 1985-94. Served with USPHS, 1963-67. National Institute of Arthritis and Metabolic Diseases Fellow, 1967-68.

Recipient Merck Manual award, 1961, Mosby Scholarship Book award 1961. Ernest B. Cotlove Memorial Lecturer, Academic Clinical Laboratory Physicians and Scientists, 1972. San Bernardino County Med. Soc. (William C. Cover Outstanding Contribution. to Medicine award 1994), Named Alumnus of Year. Walla Walla College, 1984, Honored Alumnus, Loma Linda U. School of Medicine; 1987, Loma Linda U. Humanitarian award 1991. Loma Linda U. Alumni Association Alumnus of the Year 2005.

Citizen of Year Loma Linda Chamber of Commerce 1997, President's award, Loma Linda U. 2003, Distinguished. University Service Award, School of Medicine Loma Linda U. 2005. Weniger Society laureate 2016. Fellow, American Society of Clinical Pathologists, Am. Society of Hematology, College of American Pathologists. Member FDA Panel on Hematology and Radiology Devices, National Committee on Clinical Laboratory Standards, Am. Assn. Pathologists, Sigma Xi, Alpha Omega Alpha, AMA, Seventh-day Adventist.

Achievements include patents in field of blood analysis instrumentation; development of quality control algorithms for blood analyzer calibration; origination of techniques and instrumentation for the measurement of red cell indices.