ADVENTHEALTH
UNIVERSITY

1990–1992

1992

Dr. David Greenlaw becomes the school's founder, CEO, and first president.

1992

Florida Hospital College of Health Sciences enrolled its first class in Orlando, Florida.

1998

The college started its first four-year nursing program.

2000–2009

2001

First online degree was started in radiologic sciences.

2008

The first master's degree was offered in nurse anesthesia.

2009

FHCHS opened an online extension campus in Denver, Colorado, offering accredited programs in radiography, sonography, and nursing.

2010–2019

2011

The school added a master's in occupational therapy.

2012

FHCHS status changed to university (level IV), and was renamed Adventist University of Health Sciences.

2013

The university opened a master's degree program in healthcare administration.

2015

Degrees expanded to offer a physician's assistant master's.

2016

The first doctoral degree was offered in physical therapy.

2017

Edwin I. Hernández, Ph.D., becomes the second president of the university.

2018

A second doctoral degree was added in nurse anesthesia.

2018

The university's name was changed to AdventHealth University.

PRESIDENTS OF ADVENTHEALTH UNIVERSITY

Dr. David Greenlaw, 1992-2016

Edwin I. Hernández, Ph.D., 2017-