

FREEDOM BOND

Here is my gift:

I want to support religious freedom in action, and help set at liberty those who are oppressed.

Please use my gift of:

$250 $100 $50 $_____

Thank you! U.S. or Canadian subscription price for Liberty is $6.00 for one year.

Please send me Liberty magazine.

This is a donation only.
I do not want Liberty magazine.

NAME

EMAIL

ADDRESS

CITY

STATE/PROVINCE

ZIP

CHURCH

CONFERENCE

Please complete this form, detach the envelope, and insert your payment before sealing. Place the completed envelope in an offering plate. Make checks payable to your local church.

All subscriptions will begin with the May/June issue of Liberty. Liberty magazine is only available in English.

HOW IS MY OFFERING USED?

Your Religious Liberty Offering will sponsor Liberty magazine subscriptions to high-level government officials, federal, state, and provincial judges, and prominent social and religious leaders throughout North America. Your generous gift will also be used to support the North American Division litigation fund—resources needed to defend and preserve your religious liberty in court when necessary. And a portion of your offering is returned to your local union to aid in religious liberty promotion and education.

RESOURCES

www.libertymagazine.org

Complete current issue plus 10+ year archive.
Library of "Liberty Insider" television show episodes
Editor's Blog
"Lifequest Liberty" podcast.

@Liberty_Mag

www.facebook.com/LibertyMagazineSDA

Liberty Subscriber Services:
(800) 456-3991

Experiencing religious discrimination?
Call the Religious Liberty Helpline: 877-721-3700

North American Division of Seventh-day Adventists[®]
DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS AND RELIGIOUS LIBERTY

9705 Patuxent Woods Drive, Columbia, MD 21046

LIBERTY

VISIT WWW.LIBERTYMAGAZINE.ORG/DONATE TO GIVE YOUR OFFERING ONLINE

A TIME FOR VIGILANCE

RELIGIOUS LIBERTY OFFERING JANUARY 8, 2022

“JESUS CHRIST CAME INTO THE WORLD TO SET MEN FREE, AND TO PLANT IN THEIR SOULS THE GENUINE PRINCIPLE OF LIBERTY—LIBERTY ACTUATED BY LOVE.”

These words were written by Alonzo T. Jones, one of Adventism’s most eloquent and effective religious liberty pioneers. In fact, it’s the first sentence of the first chapter of his 1889 book Civil Government and Religion.

As you turn the pages of this extraordinary book, it soon becomes clear that to be a Seventh-day Adventist in the time of A. T. Jones could be a risky business. Take the case of Pastor James Scoles from Springdale, Arkansas. He volunteered to help finish painting his congregation’s newly built church and decided to complete the work one quiet Sunday morning. “I went over to the church,” he said later, “and finished up a small strip of painting on the south side, clear out of sight of all public roads; and here I quietly worked away for perhaps two hours.”¹ For this act Pastor Scoles was arrested and jailed. This was just one of many cases in which Adventists and other religious minorities were prosecuted under state Sunday laws.

Fast-forward to today, and perhaps we’ve grown comfortable—could it be complacent?—in the knowledge that being an Adventist in the United States carries very little risk indeed. There’s almost zero chance we’ll be arrested for attending a Sunday-morning church work bee!

But being comfortable can be dangerous. An attitude of vigilance, as Ellen White clearly foresaw, is by far the most essential tool we have in the fight to defend and protect religious freedom for all. Speaking about the threats to religious liberty in her day, she wrote to the church: “O awake, I pray you, awake! for you bear the most sacred responsibilities. As faithful watchmen, you should see the sword coming.”²

Today we must be vigilant. Recent events have shown us, once again, just how easily and willingly we relinquish civil liberties when safety and security are in the balance. And today even the idea of religious freedom itself is under attack as “discriminatory” or worse.

TO BE A SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST IN THE TIME OF A. T. JONES COULD BE A RISKY BUSINESS.

For almost 120 years Liberty magazine has spoken to lawmakers, public officials, and thought leaders. It shares a distinctly Adventist warning about the urgent need to guard this precious God-given right of religious freedom. Thank you for your generous and faithful giving, which is the bedrock of this mission. And thank you for your prayers as together we work to be faithful watchmen in these difficult times.

1 A. T. Jones, Civil Government and Religion (Oakland, California: American Sentinel, 1889), p. 114.

2 “An Address in Regard to the Sunday Movement,” Review and Herald, December 24, 1889.

“BE ON GUARD! BE ALERT! YOU DO NOT KNOW WHEN THAT TIME WILL COME” (MARK 13:33, NIV).*

*Texts credited to NIV are from the Holy Bible, New International Version. Copyright © 1973, 1978, 1984, 2011 by Biblica, Inc. Used by permission. All rights reserved worldwide.

- Send Liberty to judges and lawmakers.
- Encourage liberty service.
- Defend those who are bruised.
- Pray for those already before councils and “kings.”

THREE EASY WAYS TO CONTRIBUTE:

- 1 Use the attached Freedom Bond to submit your financial commitment. Place the Bond with check or bills enclosed during offering time.
- 2 Visit our website www.libertymagazine.org/donate and give securely online.
- 3 Call (800) 456-3991 to have a customer service representative assist you with the process.